POWERS ASK TURKEY TO YIELD CITY

NOTE GUARDEDLY ADVISES THE
TURKS TO GIVE UP ADRIANOPLE

GREEK ARMY HAS LOST 7,000 SOLDIERS IN FIGHTING SINCE THE SIEGE OF JANINA WAS BEGUN.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 10—The European ambassadors today prepared a note to be presented to the Turkish government next Monday, in which the Turkish government is guaranteed to yield Adrianople.
The note, however, bears no sign of pressure on the part of the powers.

Heavy Losses by Greeks—SALONICA, Jan. 10—The losses by the Greeks in the vicinity of Janina have been more than 7,000 soldiers since the siege of the city began. Greek reinforcements are being sent out from here.

French Soldiers Killed—PARIS, Jan. 10—Tribesmen in French Morocco killed 12 and wounded 60 French soldiers in a battle near Mogador today.

MAN AGED 75 SENTENCED TO 5 YEARS FOR MURDER.
DALTON, Ga., Jan. 10—A. R.
Davis was sentenced to serve five years in the state penitentiary today after being convicted of the murder of his son, Hewlett. Davis is 75 years of age. He was separated from his wife and killed his son, who came home after his belongings.

The north bridge, which has been closed for about a week, was again opened to traffic Thursday evening. The bridge was closed while pavement piling were being put in to protect the draw from damage by passing boats.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10—Joseph Robin, the young skyrocket financier, who has been in the Tombs many months awaiting sentence on a plea of guilty to the charge of larceny of $27,000 from the Washington Savings bank, was today sentenced to serve one year in the state penitentiary.

Robin testified against Charles H.
Hyde during the latter's recent trial and the sentence today came as a surprise.

10 KILLED, 16 INJURED ON STEAMER

BELIEF IS THAT DYNAMITE WAS PLACED IN COAL BUNKERS

BOILERS BLOW UP ON VESSEL IN TOMBIGBY RIVER IN ALA-BAMA AND EXPLOSION BRINGS DEATHS.

MOBILE, Ala., Jan. 10—Later reports today are that ten men were killed and 16 injured when the bollers on the steamer Staples in the Tombigby exploded yesterday, 140 miles up the river from this city.

Investigation seems to show that dynamite was placed in the coal bunkers with criminal intent.

The vessel carried a crew of 46.
The dead are Captain C. T. Bartee, Clerk McKee, the chief engineer,
James Kopf, Henry Moulton, C.
Herring and five unidentified negro deck hands. Eight deck hands are missing.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 10—The British steamer Alcazar, with 23 persons on board, is drifting at the mercy of the waves and leaking badly off the treacherous Hatteras coast today. Tugs are being rushed to the assistance of the disabled steamer.

The steamer was brought into port late this afternoon badly disabled.

SITUATION IN NEW YORK MORE SERIOUS BECAUSE OF CON-TINUED VIOLENCE AROUND
FABRIQUES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10—The situation growing out of the garment workers' strike became more serious today in consequence of continued violence. The rioting today started on LaFayette street and before the rioting could be stopped 15 persons had been injured. The strike breakers were the aggressors.

Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. Pastor Stokes and other influential women of New York have taken up the cause of the women strikers.

Mrs. Mary Thomas, who has spent previous seasons in this city, arrived Wednesday evening from Bridgeport, Conn., accompanied by her sister and two friends, and will be here for the winter as usual.

SLAUGHTER BY REBELS IN MEXICO

FEDERAL SOLDIERS KILLED;

GARRISON AT AYOTZINGO MUR-DERED AND REINFORCEMENTS ARE BEING RUSHED TO THE SCENE OF SLAUGHTER.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 10—The reports of a federal defeat and slaughter of the garrison at Ayotzingo, in the state of Mexico, were confirmed today. Reinforcements are being rushed to the assistance of the federals in that vicinity.

The inhabitants of the town were compelled to flee for their lives and their homes were burned by the rebels. There were 50 federals killed.

To Urge Intervention—

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 10—It was

SLIPPERY SOSSAMAN SKEDADDLES

SMOOTH SHYSTER SCOOTS;
STATE SLEUTHS SEARCH

CROOK SENT UP AT LAST TERM OF COURT MAKES HIS ESCAPE FROM THE GUARDS OF LUMBER CAMP.

C. L. Sossaman is a slippery criminal and a hard man to handle, as the Volusia county and Florida state officials have learned to their entire satisfaction.

Sossaman's latest slippery trick was to escape from the state convict camp to which he had been assigned, and now the state officials are searching high and low for him.
A reward of $100 has been offered for his capture.

Sossaman is the smooth stranger who was hunted for some time by the Volusia county authorities for passing a worthless check on a DeLand bank. He was finally captured in Detroit, and Sheriff Ed Smith went after him. On the way back to DeLand with the prisoner Sheriff Smith was given a demonstration of his slipperiness when Sossaman jumped from a moving train in Georgia and made his escape.
After another long search the fugitive was captured in Washington, D.
C., and brought back to DeLand for trial.

At the December term of the criminal court he was sent up for seven years and turned over to the state authorities. By them he was leased to the Florida Pine company and was sent to Terrell to work for the Hall Lumber company.

Sossaman made his escape from the convict camp almost before he had time to get acquainted with his fellow prisoners and no trace of him has been found since. The lumber company to which he was leased and the state authorities will continue the search, but the chances are Sossaman is by this time many miles beyond the state lines of Florida.

The Heathen in His Blindness.
An Indian went hunting one day for deer. After tramping through the woods for some hours he came across a herd and managed to kill one. He shouldered it and started for market, which was some five miles away. Now of course, the longer he walked the heavier the deer got, and by the time he reached the deer market he was about all in. He hung the deer on the scales and stood looking at it with wonder. Finally he said to the man: "Ugh! Let him hang a while."

How Character is Formed.
Characters are achieved—not received. They grow out of the substance of a man's soul. They are not put on as a beggar might put on a stolen coat. They mature like fruit from the vital fluids of the tree. This is a sign of their genuineness; they grow with use. A false limb wears out, weakens with use. A natural limb grows stronger and better with use. Character is an achievement.

What Simplicity Portends.
This is a period of studied simplicity in dress which does not imply that dress is any the less costly merely that we see no beauty in elaboration or superfluity, and display a pre-tendency to wear wreaths of wild flowers on our hats instead of plumes and roses.

Incidentally, no more striking proof can be furnished of an artificial age than a love of simplicity. In Charles II's day, the fair ladies posed as shepherdesses, and tried to be the heroines of pastorals, though never taken as a whole, was society less near to nature. The Roman nobility believed in a return to the primitive life, while indulging in the greatest luxury. The people who are really poor cherish no happy illusions about plain attire and plainer fare. To them they are merely accompaniments of a poverty of which they are ashamed since they cannot help.

STATE HAPPENINGS

News from Far Florida Briefly Told

Fort Meade is made happy in the prospect of an early completion of her sewerage system.

Over 200,000 bales of cotton were exported from Pensacola during the year 1912. This is said to be a tremendous increase in business over the previous year.

A total of $2,706 was assessed in fines on arrests made by the police department in Pensacola during the month of December; 947 arrests were made during the month.

Pensacola will hold her Mardi Gras celebration on the 3rd and 4th of next month. It is expected that the coming celebration will be the greatest in the history of that city.

Stetson university at Deland opened for the second semester Friday morning with a large enrollment.
Among the new arrivals at this college were a number of young ladies from Chicago. They were given a hearty welcome.

A hog belonging to D. P. Johnson of Pinellas county, which was killed and dressed at St. Petersburg, is believed to break the record for hogs raised in Florida. The hog dressed 620½ pounds and made 360 pounds of lard. Its head weighed 57 pounds. It was a Poland-China and was raised on Mr. Johnson's farm near St. Petersburg having been bred in that county. It was fed mainly on scraps from the table.

The Country club of Orlando will initiate a movement for the purpose organizing a State Golf association and with this purpose in view has arranged for the assembling of all golfers of the state in that city February 26, 27 and 28. An elaborate program will be arranged for the three days, the citizens of that hustling town assisting the Country club in offering prizes and making the occasion one of the most enjoyable and interesting ever held in the state.

Bids for the 3,000-foot wharf to be erected in St. Petersburg, and which was provided for in the recent $200,- 000 municipal bond issue, will be received and opened in a few days. As soon as the contract is awarded the construction will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. This wharf will cost about $30,000, and extending about 1,500 feet beyond the wharf now in use there, will give dockage facilities to about 14 feet of water. A 60-foot pavement will be laid out to about half way of the end, so that every kind of vehicle may drive out to meet the biggest boats that moor there. The electric cars will also be operated about half way out on the wharf.

HUMOR OF MEDICAL STUDENT

Dutch Physician Relates Pathetic Incident of His Days in College.

Dr. Frederik Van Eeden, the Dutch physician and author, can never lose sight of the injustice of fate that subjects the poor to tortures from which the rich are exempt. He tells the following bitter little anecdote which occurred during his student days in Amsterdam.

Once a poor man was brought in affected with a very strange and rare disease of the spine that caused him, by involuntary spasms of the legs, to jump and to continue hopping when he tried to stand on his legs. One professor wanted to show this to his students and he requested the patient to stand on his feet. The poor man looked at the crowd around and said with a pathetic, imploring look:
"If the gentlemen will please not laugh." The professor promised they would be serious.

And yet, when the man began to hop the "gentlemen" roared. And I felt the tears coming to my eyes and my fists close in my pockets.—The World's Work.

NOISES OF PEKING.

Hideous Din Raised by the Vende-
That Throng the Streets.

An analysis of the street noises of Peking has been made by the correspondent of a western American newspaper and ought to be useful when the anti-noise crusade reaches the orient.
The great cause of confusion he finds is the various street vendors, each of whom is armed with a noise producing instrument by which he proclaims his trade.

The barber has two prongs of steel through which he draws a spike and thus makes a loud whir. The seller of sweets holds in his right hand two brass cups which he jangles together.
The buyer of old clothes taps a small drum with a bit of tarred bamboo, getting by this combination a plunk, plunk that attracts trade. The man who has wicker baskets to sell beats half a gourd with a drumstick, the clothes seller swings a drum which has two bits of metal attached to it by strings.
The toy dealer strikes a brass gong of a peculiarly penetrating tone, the knife grinder claps three blocks of iron together, and the seller of charcoal announces his coming by a repeated tap, tap on a block of wood.

The watchman manages to introduce a little variety. He is armed with a wooden drum, which he taps in different measures to mark the different hours of the night. The sound of his drum, however, carries no certain assurance. On the night when Peking was looted you would not have known from him that anything was wrong.
In the intervals of the rifle fire the sound of his drum rose undismayed, signalling in superb nonchalance the exciting hours.

The fact is that he is not on duty to catch thieves or even to scare them off, as are some of the Japanese watchmen.
His function is nobler. The sound of his drum frightens away the spirits of evil, without whose presence no self respecting thief can hope to pull off a successful job.

COMFORTED THE LADIES.

A Marshal of France Who Was a Hero, a Gallant and a Dandy.

Blaise de Montluc was a soldier and a marshal of France who fought through half the sixteenth century.
Like a true Gascon, as he was, he added to his great physical qualities courage, high spirits and unquenchable gaiety.

In the Italian wars Blaise de Montluc commanded the defense of Siena during a prolonged siege. When the town was reduced to a few ounces of bread daily Blaise was overcome with sickness and had himself carried about in a chair muffled up in furs.

But perceiving that the inhabitants, especially the women, were "thus rendered apprehensive of their fate should he die"—so runs an excerpt from De Montluc's "Commentaries"—"he called for a pair of crimson velvet breeches laid over with gold lace, very finely cut, for they were made at a time when he was forsooth in love. He put on a doublet of the same and a shirt of crimson silk and gold twist, then a buff collar over which he put his arms, very finely gilt."

He was at that time wearing gray and white "in honor of a fair lady to whom he was a servant when he had leisure." So he put on a bat of gray silk with a gray silver batband and a plume of heron's feathers set with silver spangles.

He also put on a short cassock of gray velvet garnished with "little plates of silver at two fingers' distance from one another and lined with cloth of silver, all open between the plates."

Then he "rubbed his face with Greek wine till he brought a little color into his cheeks and drank a small draught with a little bit of bread."

"He then looked at himself in the glass, strutted before his officers, though he had not the strength to kill a chicken, and rode through the town to the great comfort of all beholders."

Two Poor Ones.

During one of Edwin Forrest's engagements in Boston a poor artist called several times to see the great actor at the old Winthrop House. Each time he brought a picture which he had painted. He finally left it with a note stating that he was in needy circumstances. Forrest read the note and took the wrapping from the picture. It proved to be a painting of himself as Spartacus. Forrest gazed upon it a moment and then ejaculated to the clerk: "Give him $10. If he is as poor as his picture he must be on the point of starvation."

The Two Garricks.

George Garrick, brother of the celebrated David, was the latter's most devoted slave and laborious pack horse.
On coming behind the scene he usually inquired, "Has David wanted me?" It being asked once how George came to die so soon after the demise of his famous brother, a wag replied, "David wanted him."

SQUIRREL SHOWS DEEP GRIEF

Mourns Over Severed Head of Mate With Intensity That Seems Almost Human.

Almost every public park in the United States has its lively and half-domesticated colony of squirrels, and there is no other creature of the woods and fields with which city children may—and do—become so familiar. An interesting story which shows the depth of feeling which these little animals are capable, comes to the Companion from Waterloo, Ia.

A physician who lives near one of the parks in that city had long had an especial interest in a pair of squirrels which made their home in a tree within sight of his house. One day he noticed that one of this pair was running up and down a certain tree in the park, meanwhile chattering in the greatest excitement. Finally the little fellow appeared on a branch, holding between his paws the severed head of his mate, over which he was moaning and whining pitifully. On investigation, it appeared that the dead squirrel had been caught and actually decapitated by a limb split off from the tree by a storm of the night before. The grief-stricken mate would not abandon the body all that day, and mourned over the severed head with an intensity and absorption which seemed almost human, with a depth of emotion indeed, of which some human beings are hardly capable.—Youth's Companion.

Wonderful Island.

New Zealand has one of the most marvelous and phenomenal islands in the world. It is situated in the Bay of Plenty and is called White Island, and consists mainly of sulphur mixed with gypsum and a few other minerals. Over the island, which is about three miles in circumference, and rises over 800 feet above the sea, there continually floats an immense cloud of vapor, often attaining an altitude of 10,000 feet. In the center is a boiling lake of acid-charged water, covering 50 acres and surrounded with blow holes from which steam and sulphurous fumes are emitted with great force and noise. With care a boat can be navigated on the lake.

Tomb of Omar Khayyam.

Major Sykes was shown the tomb near a shrine that stood in a garden of roses. "The bones of Omar Khayyam, who as a Sunni" (an adherent of a heterodox Mohammedan sect) "is held in disfavor by the fanatical in Persia, do not," he says, "rest inside the chamber, but turning to the eastern wing an unincorporated plastered tomb was shown us, and here Omar Khayyam is buried. One advantage at least is preserved to the poet, which is that, as he foretold, the trees shed their blossoms on him twice a year; in other words, the blossoms of the fruit trees in the garden are carried to his grave."—Travel and Exploration.

Paper Drinking Cups.

In the schools of Austria the children are taught to carry several sheets of writing paper in their pockets at all times. Then, when a child is thirsty, he can roll one of the sheets into a cone and make a perfectly serviceable cup which may be placed, after being used, in the nearest waste paper box. How to roll the cones deftly is taught the children. The tearing of a notch about half an inch long near one end before rolling the cone serves to make the improved cup stronger.

Robin Hood, Who "Robbed the Rich to Feed the Poor"

"Heere, underneethe thys Lyttel stone, Lies Robert, Earle of Huntingdone. For twenty years and somethynge more Hee robb'd the rich to feed the poore. No archer was as hee soe goode. And menne did call hym 'Robin Hood' Such outlawes as hee and bys menne Will England never see agayne."

SO RUNS an old rhyme. The man about whom it was written undoubtedly lived and was known from one end of England to the other. But whether half the stories told about him is true is quite another matter. It is hard in writing of Robin Hood to sift fact from legend. This story can but tell the popular version of his career without vouching for its entire truth.

Robin Hood is said to have been born in 1160, and to have been a nobleman's son who, through injustice, was outlawed. He too krefuge in Sherwood forest, in Nottinghamshire, England. There he gathered about him a band of unfortunate men as desperate as himself, and prepared to make war on the world at large.

It was a rude, violent age. Human life was held lightly. Laws were barbarous. For shooting deer in the royal forests the penalty was torture and (for the second offense) death. The barons and other rich and powerful men could overtax and ill-use the poor almost without restraint. Persons who suffered under such tyranny had usually no redress. Often they revenged themselves by plundering their former masters and by preying on humanity at large. Says one old historian (Stow).

"In this time were many robbers and outlaws, among which Robin Hood and Little John, renowned theeves, continued in the woods, despoiling and robbing the goodes of the rich. The said Robin suffered no woman to be oppressed or molested. Poore men's goodes he spared; abundantly relieving them with that which by theft he got from the houses of the rich. Of all theeves Malor (an early writer) affirmeth him to be the prince and the most gentle theefe."

Robin and his band dwelt in the greenwood, patrolling the highroads and holding up rich travelers. Especially did they enjoy capturing dishonest money lenders and cruel landlords. Robin's favorite method with such prisoners was to conduct them to his secret glade and there regale them with a feast. (The food consisted largely of stolen deer and dainties fished from noblemen's larders.) After the meal he would suggest that they pay for their entertainment by giving him all their money and jewels. At other times he would go, disguised, to some town, make friends with a local rich man and under some pretext lure him to the forest.

That Robin did not steal from the poor was not an especially noble trait. The poor had nothing worth stealing. Moreover, by helping the peasants with a little money now and then he made them his friends and gave them an interest in warning him against his pursuers.

Robin and his men were splendid archers. Their skill with bow and arrow reached the king's ears. His majesty is said to have been so much pleased with the band's archery that he pardoned them all. But Robin could not long remain out of trouble. He fell foul of the law once more, and the sheriff of Nottingham was sent to crush him. In the woodland battle that followed the sheriff's men were beaten off. Soon afterward Robin fell dangerously ill. There was no surgeon nearby, so his men carried him to a convent, where his cousin was a lay sister. She had great repute in medicine and Robin thought she might save him. She dared not refuse shelter to the sick man for fear of his followers' wrath. But she dared not cure him, lest the king should hear that the convent had harbored and aided an outlaw. So, according to the story, she opened a vein in his arm and left him to bleed to death.

When the dying man learned of her treachery he set his bugle to his lips and blew a feeble blast. Little John, his lieutenant, heard it, and rushed to the sick room. Robin, so runs the old ballad, forbade Little John to take vengeance on the convent. Then, setting arrow to bow for the last time, he sent the shaft whizzing out through an open window and begged to be buried at the spot where his arrow should strike earth.

A likeable, rollicking, sentimental outlaw. His life story (even stripped of all legend and folklore) seems to entitle him to a goodly place among Historic Blackguards.

Still Denied.

"Dibbles says his life has been a series of disappointments."

"Yes?"

"When quite small he cried for the moon, later on he wanted a musical comedy star and now he sighs in vain for a little son."

The advice of the old lawyer to his son was that no matter what his relations with womankind he should never write a love letter and never destroy one. INTERESTING MEETING OF THE LOCAL D. A. R.

The regular January meeting of the local chapter, D. A. R., was held at the home of the D. A. R. state secretary, Mrs. Chas. E. Gardiner, the vice regent, Mrs. A. F. Bigelow, presiding.

A delightful musical program, through the courtesy of Miss Ella Willaume, preceded the afternoon's program. It consisted of three numbers, as follows: Piano duet, Misses Willaume and Mallory; Miss Mallory gave a fine interpretation of one of Chopin's waltzes; instrumental duet, "Comrades in Arms," Mrs. Gardiner and Miss Willaume.

The formal opening of the chapter, Miss Stoeber, acting as chaplain, was followed by a short business meeting. The literary program was in charge of Mrs. Chas. H. Raynor, and covered the years immediately preceding the Revolutionary Period in Colonial History.

Mrs. Octavia Thorp gave the first number, "The Continental Congress." Mrs. Raynor, "the provincial congress, the second congress and activities in colonies." Mrs. Gardiner closed the program with a paper on Mecklenburg, N. C. Three out of town daughters were present. Mrs. Johnson of Minnesota, Mrs. Charles C. Fenger of Hartford and Miss Van Keuren of St. Augustine. The serving of dainty refreshments and a social hour ended a delightful afternoon.

London as a Frenchman Sees It.

The little French boy has every opportunity of getting an engaging idea of London. In a recent volume of French and general geography, which has run into several editions, the compiler gives an English reading from the works of M. Enault, whoever he may be. And the little French boy is told concerning the London of this century that there are in the best parts of our unhappy city "whole streets formed of dens dug out of the soil, which itself was only a mass of rubbish." And again: "A little further on, bands of half-starved men without fire or shelter take refuge in gypsy vans, which vans are buried up to the axle in mud." People also sleep in wheelless cabs, for which they pay a rent of 12½ cents a week. We Londoners should not have known anything about this if M. Enault had not told us!—London Chronicle.

Some Women Have No Hearts

A Cleveland man was complaining the other day about the lack of sympathy in the world.

And then he offered a personal example.

He said he went home from his business on a recent afternoon and received a great scare on the way. He was still trembling when he entered the house.

"Well, Mary," he said, as he dropped into a chair, "I got a bad scare just now. As I went around the end of the car at the corner a big touring car went by me like a wild thing, and say, it was so close when it passed that the hubs of the wheels brushed my pants!"

Did his wife turn pale at this recital? Did she express joy and thankfulness over his narrow escape?

No, she didn't.

She just looked him over and said:

"Well, your pants certainly needed brushing!"

Origin of Common Names.

Kings in the earliest days were merely "fathers of families," and the word is derived from the same source as "kin." Queen at first meant "wife" or "mother." An earl was an "elder" in the primitive society, while "czar" and "kaiser" are both derived from "Caesar." A dandelion is or once was "dent de leon," meaning the lion's tooth, and vinegar was once "vin aligre," which means sour wine.

ORMOND

ORMOND, Jan. 9 — Isaac Sawyer recently purchased a large number of citrus and ornamental trees. The shrubbery and ornamental trees will be placed on his property about the village, while the fruit trees will be set out on Mr. Sawyer's property across the river.

The Ormond Yacht club held its annual election of officers on Monday. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Chas. McNary, president; Wm. H. Barker, vice president; Fred Carnell, secretary; James E. Francis, treasurer; Israel Putnam, commodore; Frank Mason, vice commodore. Andrew Baker, J. Wilson Miller and James Carnell, trustees.

Nearly all of the young people of the town as well as many older ones, attended the circus at Daytona on Tuesday night.

The Ormond friends of Mrs. Walter Conner and Mrs. James Bent, who occupied the Nichols cottage on New Britain avenue for a couple of years, will be interested in hearing that these ladies are about to start on a trip to Texas and points in the west.

At a meeting of the town council Monday night, it was voted to turn the unpaid bills for the new sidewalks over to Mayor Milligan for collection.

Mr. Yates and daughter Louie are spending the winter in Allegan, Mich. Miss Yates' friends in Ormond, will regret to learn that she is not at all well.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Stilwell arrived Monday afternoon.

The mayor is again looking after stray cattle which have been annoying the townspeople of late. He has some off John Wynn's, also some of McDonald's already in the pound. The owners have been notified to appear before the mayor on Monday, the 13th, at 10 o'clock.

The new street lamps to be placed on Palmetto street have arrived and will soon be in operation.

Harrison Bristol, who has been quite ill for the past ten days is now recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Clements entertained at dinner on New Year's day Mayor John Milligan, Mrs. Milligan and Mrs. Oliver Darwin; also Ray Clements and family from Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Mr. Pettyman arrived in Ormond last week and is looking after the building of his new houses. We understand one of the houses is already rented; the other, Mr. Pettyman expects to occupy himself.

Mrs. Isabelle B. Stimpson, who has been confined to her house for two or three days, by a slight illness, is now improving.

We note the arrival of James Archer, catcher for the Chicago Cubs, together with Mrs. Archer. They are occupying the George Howe cottage on New Britain avenue.

The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Louis de Groom on New Year's night leaving a fine baby daughter.

Alfred Weatherbee left for St. Petersburg on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Weatherbee expects to visit several places in the southern and western part of the state and will be away about a month.

Mrs. Fleming of Chicago is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Daniel Abbott.

The United States post office inspector has been in Ormond a few days looking after the post office interests.

Eighteen fine horses belonging to the Hotel Ormond came in Monday morning.

The Village Improvement Association observed its twenty-first birthday anniversary in the form of a reception given at the library rooms on Palmetto street Friday afternoon. After an informal reception, an address of welcome was given by the president, Mrs. Macon Thornton, in her most pleasing manner. Following this several short talks were given by some of the guests present. Andrew Bostrom speaking on "The Woman's Place in the Town;" James Carnell on "Woman in Politics;" Mrs. Udon Watson on "Men's Hats;" and John A. Reilly on the "Bargain Counter." Dr. John Richmond most ably filled the position of toastmaster. Refreshments followed and a very enjoyable social evening was spent. The committee on arrangements were Miss Emma Weatherbee, Mrs. James Carnell and Mrs. E. V. Collis.

J. R. Ellicott and family arrived Saturday night. Mr. Ellicott has a new speed boat which he brought from Jacksonville, and he expects the craft to make from 14 to 15 miles an hour.

George Sage's house on Palmetto street has been completed, the family moving in on Saturday. This attractive, handsome home adds much to the residential portion of Ormond.

Mrs. C. B. Baker and son, Edgar arrived Saturday. Miss Marion, who is attending boarding school in the north, will not be down this season.

The annual meeting of the Ormond Missionary society was held at the parsonage Wednesday afternoon. The same officers were elected for the ensuing year.

C. M. Geiger has recently made quite extensive changes in his drug store, having just installed a large, handsome plate glass front with other improvements. Mr. Geiger has engaged W. E. Oliver of Alken, S. C., as prescription clerk and is otherwise fully equipped for the season's business.

PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE, Jan. 9 — Mr. and Mrs. Moore and one daughter arrived Friday and are getting comfortably settled in their winter home on Orange street.

Last week the J. W. Wilbur Co. received a car of lumber and one of well pipe, and this week a car of lumber and one of brick, and a water works plant, also a lot of furniture. The Wilburs are going to have a model town at Elberton by the Sea.

Mrs. Corey was hostess to a card party New Year's eve, and in honor of the occasion refreshments were served about ten o'clock, and then it was proposed to continue the party and see the old year out and the new year in. It was a very jolly evening.

New Year's night Mrs. J. W. Rikeman invited the Good Times club and their men folks to meet at her home on Dunlawton avenue, and a very pleasant evening was spent. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Nicholson went to Georgia last week to visit relatives at her old home.

Mrs. C. M. Milburn and two little daughters came from St. Augustine Monday of last week to visit Mr. Milburn's parents, Mr. Milburn came Friday and stayed until Sunday when they all went home.

Mr. and Mrs. McCasbie have moved into the country.

Mrs. Hunter is visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. Dupont.

Mrs. W. V. Carter went to Jacksonville, Tuesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Lovelace.

Hiram Smith and Gramling Fatillo, who have been in Dr. Bohannon's hospital for some time, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lesbe and child are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich.

Monday about noon, Lewis H. 'Karn' was taken suddenly ill while on his way from the depot to his house, and went into 'Myron H. Briggs' and collapsed. He was carried home and passed away at 10 o'clock that night. Mr. Karn came here about 1890 from Maryland, and has been justice of the peace for many years. He was highly respected and liked by everybody. He is survived by his widow.

KINGSTON.

KINGSTON, Jan. 9 — Miss Myrtle Neenan is recovering from a severe illness.

Adrian Fuquay is entertaining his brother from Nebraska.

Mrs. Ward, of Mulberry street, is visiting her son, John Ward, of DeLand.

W. L. Boozer returned Saturday last after a two weeks' visit at his home in Worthington Springs.

While the boys at the Kingston school were playing ball at recess, Tuesday, Emmet Markham threw the ball with such force as to break his arm.

Mrs. J. W. Watson and four children of Atlanta, are visiting with Wylie Melton and family.

John Carney left for Ormond Tuesday.

Cyrus Wells of Jacksonville, is visiting his aunts, Mrs. Penny and Mrs. G. W. Carter.

MRS. BRADLEY AND HER $50,000 BALLROOM

Mrs. Edson Bradley of New York and Washington recently opened the $50,000 ballroom in her magnificent residence in the national capital and during the season she will be the hostess at many entertainments in the beautiful room. For some of these functions those who are invited will pay admission and the proceeds will be given to various charities. The tapestries, furniture and art objects that adorn the room are especially admired.

The Seabreeze council met in regular session at the town hall and the following ordinances were passed on first reading: To change the date of the annual election from May to March; to prohibit the use of air guns, etc.; to prohibit roller skating on the sidewalks; ordering that automobiles and motor cycles shall carry a light so that the number of license may be plainly seen.

A petition was presented for the building of sidewalks on Peninsula drive on both sides of the street from Ocean boulevard to the city limits on Duke street, referred to the street committee. A motion carried to purchase a site on Butler boulevard for town buildings, including hall, jail and pound. The marshal reported two arrests, one for not carrying light on vehicles and one for riding on sidewalk with velocipede. A protest was heard against the street committee cutting the flowering shrubs from the parkage without consulting the property owner on said parkage. The council adjourned to January 4, 7:00 p. m.

The move to lay cement sidewalk on North Peninsula drive from the boulevard to Daytona Beach shows a commendable spirit of progressiveness on the part of the property owners, nearly all of whom signed the petition without urging. This street will doubtless become one of the main thoroughfares between these thriving municipalities, and the building of modern new cottages is replacing those of a more primitive order. In a tourist town beauty is a valuable asset, and the time invested in beautifying front yards and parkages is well invested.

The grading of two lots, the property of Mrs. Hattie Morgan and Frank Beebe, has gone forward this week. Work will begin on the Beebe cottage right away. Mrs. Morgan, who could not arrange to be here this winter, will not begin building operations on her property until next fall. The lots are located on Palmetto avenue south of W. N. Manchester's winter home.

Kenney & Courtney this week sold to W. N. Wilmington of Chicago, Ill., lot 8, b/k 5, Stewart & Brush subdivision. The lot is located on the beach, and Mr. Wilmington expects to build a bungalow on his property next spring.

The same agents have also sold the residence property of Mrs. Abbie E. Griggs Allen on the corner of Duke and Halifax avenue to a Mr. Smith of Vermont who will make improvements in the property and use it as a winter home.

Miss Mada Pierson and friend, Mrs. A. Willson, will arrive tomorrow from Newark, N. Y., to spend the remainder of the winter with Miss Pierson's parents, at their winter home on North Atlantic avenue. C. A. Kenney recently purchased a Shetland pony and pretty rig for his wife, who is greatly enjoying her drives about the town and highways.

Mrs. J. A. Coburn and daughter, Miss Leota, returned Sunday from a round with Mr. Coburn through part of the state. They left him at Lakeland. They greatly enjoyed their Christmas and New Year outing. Mr. Coburn expects to join his family here sometime the last of the month.

L. E. Jackson, who is with D. D. Rogers of Daytona, has leased Miss Kelly's cottage on North Atlantic avenue for a year, and is now in possession with his family.

F. E. Lowell is having a cement walk extended around the south end of his cottage home on North Halifax avenue.

Mrs. J. A. Coburn entertained the San Souci club Thursday at her home on North Halifax avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Luce of Pennington, Pa., arrived Monday and are guests at the Geneva.

Ex-Senator Loren Fletcher of Minneapolis, Minn., and his niece, Mrs. H. S. Cole, baby and nurse, are at the Princess Islena, where they are spending their fourth or fifth season.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wilks, who stopped for a day at the Princess Islena and remained a month, left yesterday for Tampa, but expect to return to Seabreeze later in the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis C. Ward and Howard Ward, Detroit, Mich., Mrs. W. B. Finch, St. Paul, Minn., H. Conklin and wife are recent arrivals at the Princess Islena.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashbury and two daughters of New York, have leased and are occupying the Kennedy-Mott cottage, Schenectady, on North Peninsula drive.

Mrs. Thomas and sister of Middlebury, Vt., arrived Wednesday and have secured apartments in the Mott house.

F. G. Stuart is building a commodious row boat for Mrs. Cushing.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Langworthy are having their attractive home on Ocean boulevard redecorated throughout.

Very encouraging news was received from Mrs. D. C. Rankin, who is still under treatment in Atlanta. She has been taking short walks, but the doctor discourages the idea of her coming home this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cole are expected to arrive from Baltimore, Md., this week to occupy their winter home on North Atlantic avenue.

Mrs. Phillips and daughter, Miss Nell and her little niece, Elizabeth, arrived at the Mayfield Wednesday to spend the season here, as usual.

Dr. Morrissey is having his beach lot north of the E. L. Green's residence property cleared and graded.

B. M. Caldwell and son, H. W. Caldwell of Oxford, N. C., will arrive this week and join Mr. and Mrs. Hildreth at the Bernard cottage on Ocean boulevard. Mr. Caldwell, Jr., will bring his motor car with him.

The Seabreeze postoffice shows a very encouraging increase in the sale of stamps over last year and the three months of heavy business has just begun.

Mrs. Oliver, little son, Lewis and brother, Mr. Henry, recent arrivals from N. H., have secured rooms at the Brockie, on Grandview avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wright, who were guests at the Geneva last week, have leased the Wigwam beach cottage for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert P. Warren of Lowell, Mass., arrived last week from Summerville, S. C., and have taken rooms with Mrs. Alice Godmark, on Halifax avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Uebelhoefer were in Jacksonville a couple of days last week, returning home Saturday. Mr. Uebelhoefer made the trip to look after his new car, which arrived here Monday. It is a 38 Packard runabout, 1913, six cylinder, and is a beautiful machine, having all the latest improvements.

A pitiful case of suffering and want was uncovered by Miss Delia Walker a week or ten days ago. Two young men, Russell and Morris Kell, between 18 and 22 years of age, came here for the health of the latter, who is in an advanced stage of consumption. They had worked on the railroad and were given free transportation to this point, the younger boy expecting to get work to keep them both. They secured a little cottage off Butler boulevard, but the trip down was too hard on the invalid and he needed the constant care of the younger boy, and when visited there was nothing in the house to eat. Miss Walker acquainted the Library club with the situation and food was sent in. Then the little Baptist mission took up the matter, and the Sunday collection was given to them by the pastor, Rev. A. L. Abercrombie. Last Sunday a number of the Sunday school workers in company with Mr. Abercrombie visited them, giving the sick boy spiritual consolation. Mr. Abercrombie also interested his Daytona congregation in the case, and a liberal donation was made by them.

Dr. M. V. Young has had cement sidewalk laid in front of his residence property on North Atlantic avenue.

Mrs. Reed Sanford and her young son, Wilmont, of Hudson, Mich., have secured the second floor apartments in the Martin house.

Tracing the "Barber Shop Chord." Barbers in the old days might well charge heavily, for their trade must have been a nerve-racking existence. Zithers were provided instead of newspapers, and customers used to strum on these while waiting for a vacant chair. Dekker, writing, refers to "a barber's cittern for every man to play on." The term "barber's music," was a common one in the days of Pepys, who on June 5, 1660, records: "After supper my lord called for the Lieutenant's cittern, and with two candlesticks with money in them for symbols, we made barber's music, with which my lord was very well pleased."

INTERESTING RIDES
AND DRIVES
POINTS WORTH VISITING

OCEAN BEACH—excellent motor road north for 10 miles and south 10 miles to Mosquito Inlet and the Government lighthouse at Ponce Park. The beach is the most magnificent in the world.

BEED, KNOX & BEED ORANGE GROVE—18 miles, via Ormond, is one of the largest groves in Volusia county and is well worth seeing; can be reached by motor over fairly good road; can also be reached by boat.

NUMBER NINE ORANGE GROVE—large grove, passed on the way to the Beed, Knox & Beed grove, is 12 miles from Daytona.

NEW SMYRNA—16 miles from Daytona, over an excellent hard surface road; this drive is said to be the prettiest in the state. At New Smyrna are the ruins of an ancient fort and other historical spots, left by the colony of Andrew Turnbull.

OLD SPANISH MISSION—2 miles west of New Smyrna, reached by motor over good road. This mission is without authentic history but by many it is contended that this is the church built by Columbus on his second voyage to America. The altar is still extant, but at a later date the building was used as a sugar mill.

SPANISH SUGAR MILL—2 miles west of Port Orange and about 8 miles from Daytona; the machinery is still in a good state of preservation, although the mill is presumed to have been built and operated by the early Spanish settlers.

GOVERNMENT LIGHTHOUSE—at Ponce Park, 12 miles from Daytona is reached by boat or by motor on the ocean beach.

MAMMOTH TREE—4 miles from Daytona; an abnormally large tree; reached by motor over hard surfaced road.

DELAND—25 miles from Daytona; the county seat of Volusia county and seat of John B. Stetson university; a very picturesque city; reached by motor over hard surfaced road.

TOMOKA RIVER—The scenic stream of Florida; reached by excursion boats which leave Daytona daily and run to the navigable head of the stream, 26 miles from the city. Generally a number of alligators may be seen in their native haunts. This is a trip no tourist should miss.

DELEON SPRINGS, 28 miles from Daytona; mammoth spring that throws out thousands of gallons of water a minute; a delightful bathing pool, and picturesque scenery. Spring is situated in an old plantation. Reached by motor over good road; a nice trip for a picnic party.

OAK HILL—hamlet, 10 miles south of New Smyrna; several orange groves in the locality; reached by motor over hard surfaced road.

ORMOND—six miles from Daytona; here is located the Ormond hotel and a pretty town; nearby are the ruins of Spanish sugar mills.

TURTLE MOUND—26 miles south of Daytona; reached by boat; a mammoth mound of oyster shells supposed to have been left by a prehistoric race of people. Pottery and other antiquities have been discovered in excavating the shell.

PORT ORANGE—an attractive town 6 miles south of Daytona, can be reached by motor over hard surfaced road; or the trip one way may be made by the road and crossing the Halifax river on the Port Orange bridge, the return can be made on the ocean beach.

CLARENDON GOLF LINKS—2 miles from Daytona and immediately north of the Hotel Clarendon at Seabreeze; the links are now in good condition. The Hotel Clarendon bears the distinction of being the only fireproof winter tourist hotel in the world.

GENERALLY, you may motor in any direction from Daytona and find places and objects of interest which your driver can explain to you; there are many by-roads through the sylvan vegetation that a visitor will greatly enjoy.

"Papa" and "Mamma."

The use of "papa" in this country illustrates the flow and ebb of fashion in words, as in costumes, pretty clearly.All authorities agree that "papa" and "mamma" arrived here from France in the seventh century, says the London Chronicle. At first they were courtly expressions, and were used by "persons of fashion," adults as well as children, in the eighteenth century.
But with the nineteenth the middle classes took them up, originally regarding them as genteel; in our own time one of the faults of the hero of "E. dunno where e are," after coming into "a little bit o' splosh," was that he "ad the cheek and impudence to call 'is mother is ma." The usual result followed. Everybody's words adopted as genteel became vulgar, and now "papa" and "mamma" are dying out, even among children.

A Resourceful Woman.

Our idea of a resourceful woman is one who can stand her family skeleton in a corner of the parlor and make folks believe it is bric-a-brac.

GORDON'S BLUNDER.

Grave Tactical Mistake of a Budding English General.When General Gordon was a lad at school he was as mischievous as most boys. When the boys had done anything wrong they were shut up to a large, barely furnished room and set to write lines from a Latin author.Gordon was one of the most frequent prisoners in this room, and he used to be annoyed by the boys who were free coming to the door and peering at him through the keyhole. Resolving to get even, he procured a large syringe, and, taking it with him the next time he went to write lines, he went round to the various desks and sucked up the ink into the syringe.By and by he heard stealthy foot steps coming down the passage. Nearer and nearer they came and at last halted outside the door. "They are peeping through the keyhole," whispered the future general, and, placing the syringe to the keyhole, he squirted the contents through with all the energy he could muster.There was a smothered exclamation of disgust, and then some one fumbled with the handle of the door. It opened, and in stalked the head master, his face black with wrath and his once snowy shirt front black with ink. We must draw a veil over the painful scene which followed.—London Globe

HART'S EASY JOB.

Slept For a Week and Made Enough to Live on For a Year.To sleep for one's living, says the London Chronicle, may appeal to some as a more attractive alternative than to work for one's living. But the feat has been achieved. In the Daily Courant of Aug. 9, 1711, the following advertisement appears: "Nicholas Hart, who slept last year in St. Bartholomew's hospital, intends to sleep this year at the Cock and Bottle in Little Britain." Some further particulars of this professional somnolent are to be found in the Spectator for Oct. 1 of that year. It appears that Hart was every year seized with a periodical fit of sleeping, which began on Aug. 5 and ended on the 11th. Its various stages are thus described:"On the 1st of that month he grew dull; on the 2d, appeared drowsy; on the 3d, fell a-yawning; on the 4th, began to nod; on the 5th, dropped asleep; on the 6th, was heard to snore; on the 7th, turned himself in his bed; on the 8th, recovered his former posture; on the 9th, fell a-stretching; on the 10th about midnight, awakened; on the 11th in the morning, called for a little small beer." This performance, it is asserted, gained for Hart "enough to support himself for a twelvemonth."

Polished and Vigorous.

Observing a passenger with the unlighted butt of a cigar in his fingers, the street car conductor requested him to put it out."It is out, you chump," responded the passenger."Pardon me," resumed the conductor.
"If I have failed to make myself clear, the condition to which I had reference was not one of mere temporary non-combustion, but of elimination, the eradication, I might say, of the physical presence of your nicotine laden remant, this process followed necessarily by cessation of the odor now permeating an atmosphere already somewhat deficient, I fear, in the essential element of ozone. I'm a humble conductor, and my aim is to please; but, you big porcine stiff, you throw that cigar through the door or I'll throw you and it both. See?""Excuse me, professor," replied the passenger meekly, and the incident was closed.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Running as Exercise.

The fact that a person is capable of doing the best running and speed walking before the thirtieth year need not lead those who have passed the third decade to think that they are on the down grade of life, says an authority. These exercises call for elasticity of the arteries, and that lessens soon after the thirtieth year, but powers of endurance increase in the well preserved man or woman up to fifty or fifty-five or even later. Soldiers of fifty are like leather and can perform feats of endurance that would kill the strapping, and the same is true of women.

Dame Fortune.

"Pa, why do they call it 'Dame' Fortune?"
"Because Dame is feminine. Fortune is symbolized as a woman."
"Why do they symbolize Fortune as a woman?"
"Because she's nearly always late when you have an engagement with her."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Took Wind Out of Their Sails.

Addressing one of his southern audiences, Sam Jones once requested all the husbands present who had not spoken a harsh word to their wives for a month to stand up. He shook hands with those who arose and then introduced them to the rest of the audience as the "twenty-seven biggest liars in Tennessee."

Realistic.

"How did the moving pictures of the wedding turn out?"
"Oh, splendidly. They caught the bride when she was knocked senseless by being hit with an old shoe, so that it is just as natural as life."—Chicago Record-Herald.All who have meant good work with their whole heart have done good work, although they may die before they have signed it.—R. L. Stevenson.

THINKS THE RAILROAD DEPOT
SHOULD BE BETTER LIGHTED.

John Venger of Buffalo, N. Y., a recent arrival at the Gables hotel, wants to know why a city of Day-tona's importance cannot have a better lighted railway depot and this question is frequently asked by visitors to the city. Mr. Venger arrived on an evening train and a friend who was waiting for him at the depot failed to find him in the gloom which pervades that place after nightfall and which is merely accentuated by the oil lamps in use.
The contrast is all the more marked by the use of electric light at the Southern Express office at the southern end of the depot. The poor lighting of the depot is certainly no fault of the local agent and why the authorities higher up fail to give this matter proper consideration is only explainable by them.

DUPONT LAND AGENTS

BRING PARTY TO CITY.

Levit P. Booe, assistant state agent of the Dupont Railway & Land company, was at the F. E. C. railway depot Thursday afternoon to receive his brother, Manley Booe, who arrived with a party of ten of a dozen people from central Indiana, who are prospective investors in the fertile Dupont district and will spend the winter in this city and vicinity.
It is the policy of the Dupont company to bring their prospecting parties to Daytona and quite a number who had come here earlier were at the depot with Mr. Booe to welcome the members of the new party. The Dupont section contains some of the best farming land in the state, thought by many to outclass the famous Hastings district and the agents of the Dupont company are live business men awake to the advantages of the proximity of Daytona to the land they are putting on the market.

*Cooked Food Sale—The Ladies' Circle will hold their usual sale of cooked food at Social hall, corner Volusia and Palmetto, Saturday afternoon. Hot tea and coffee will be served.

Man's independence.
No iron chain nor outward force of any kind could ever compel the soul of man to believe or to disbelieve; it is his own indefeasible right, that judgment of his; he will reign and believe thereby the grace of God alone!—Thomas Carlyle.

*Our salads are without an equal
The Green Lattice.

A Hint.
Of the many curious customs which mark Brittany as an especially interesting field for the traveler is this one relating to marriage. At the close of the wedding ceremony the bridegroom gives the bride a box on the ear, saying:

"This is how it feels when you make me vexed," after which he kisses her, adding, "and thus when you treat me well."

*We offer nothing but the best in picture plays—THE ARCADE.

Glass Sidewalk.
For some time the city of Lyons, France, has been using glass for sidewalks instead of brick or stone. It is laid in blocks eight inches square, each block containing sixteen squares, resembling a checkerboard. It has proved more lasting than stone, and much cheaper.—Denver Municipal Facts.

*Cut flowers, Pot plants and decorative palms at Daytona Floral Co.

Rus in Urbe.
A Springfield, Mo., man, describing his experience in New York, says: "I got on street cars two or three different times and told the conductors the names of friends along the line that I wanted to visit, and blame me if they could tell me where any of them lived!"—Kansas City Times.

*The best cup of tea in the city at the Green Lattice.

JAMES LOFTON BOUND OVER FOR BREAKING AND ENTERING

NEGRO CAUGHT IN ST. AUGUSTINE FINE CREATES CONSIDERABLE EXCITEMENT AROUND CITY HALL.

James Lofton, colored, was this morning bound over to the criminal court by Justice Zuber on a charge of breaking and entering following the disappearance of a number of tools belonging to G. F. Parker some time ago.

Lofton is well known in police and county circles because of his having been up for examination as to his sanity on previous occasions. The negro created considerable excitement about the city hall this morning because of his antics and it was with considerable difficulty he was finally loaded into an automobile and taken to the city jail to await the coming of Sheriff Smith.

The local police has been searching for Lofton on the charge for some time and he was arrested in St. Augustine Thursday. Marshal
Melton brought him back to Daytona Thursday night.

*Don't forget Hattie can satisfy the inner man.

MOTHERS' AND TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION MEETING.

The Mothers' and Teachers' association met Wednesday afternoon.
The number in attendance and the interest shown was very gratifying.

The meeting was opened with a solo by Donna Edwards. Dr. F. I.
Walter gave a lecture on "The Care of Children's Eyes," which contained many practical suggestions. These addresses are given from time to time by home people who are interested in the school and who are capable of presenting the several subjects.

Every mother should make an effort to be present whether or not she wishes to join the association.

A rising vote of thanks was tendered Louis Adler for his kindness in extending to the boys the use of a vacant lot as a playground.
It is time that parents began thinking of a public playground for our city, for it must come sooner or later.

The rest of the afternoon was devoted to questions bearing directly on school work. Several of the teachers brought before the association the need of land for the classes in agriculture and also the need of introducing classes in domestic science and manual training.

The question box brought out many points of interest and was continued in charge of Mrs. J. D.
Maley.

Geo. J. Vande Vord came up to this city Thursday afternoon from Hawks Park, where he had been for three days looking after his apiary at that place. He will leave here today or tomorrow to rejoin his wife and daughters at Mt. Dora.

passed through this city Wednesday afternoon on the north bound train, No. 34, returning from Palm Beach to which place Mr. Flagler and party went Tuesday on the inauguration of the new schedule.

*To see the best moving picture show go to the Arcade.

Capt. H. B. Fromberger, who came on the steamer Biscayne and barge, Thetis, to this city Wednesday, returned to Jacksonville by train Thursday afternoon, having some business to transact in that city which must be attended to earlier than he could manage by returning on the boat.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hayward of Davenport, Iowa, who arrived recently and are located for the season in one of J. G. Brown's houses, 237 South Ridgewood avenue, were joined Wednesday evening by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W.
H. Kimball, and two sons, also of Davenport.

*The very best in Fish, Oysters, Game and Chops at Hattie's.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Brewer of Bowling Green, and W. V. Brewer of Columbus, Ohio, guests at the Gables hotel, were Daytona visitors last winter, W. V. Brewer being at the Gables in company with his wife, who will join him here again this season. M. P. Brewer was editor of the Bowling Green Sentinel, and Mrs. Brewer is a daughter of the late Norton Reed of Bowling Green, who spent many winters in Daytona and lived to the ripe old age of 90 years and more.

*Chicken dinner, Wednesday and Sunday, 35c. Hattie's Quick Lunch.

A party of joy riders out for a lark Wednesday evening did a neat piece of defencing for E. W. Greene of North Ridgewood avenue, and left as a souvenir of their escapade the tail lamp of their car, which E.
N. Waldron discovered next morning.
The car evidently left the roadway in front of the gateway of Mr. Greene's residence and completely razed the iron fence from that point northward for 40 or 50 feet. That the members of the party escaped death or serious injury is a wonder and bears out one of the popular old adages.

*Our pictures entertain as well as instruct you—THE ARCADE.
